Mitsubishi Electric Safety Programmable Controller MELSEC iQ-R Series

Machinery Directive (2006/42/EC) and UKCA Marking Compliance

Thank you for purchasing the Mitsubishi Electric safety programmable controller. MELSEC iQ-R is a safety programmable controller suitable for establishing safety functions for general industrial machinery, and samples with the Machinery Directive (2006/42/EC) and the UKCA marking.

Before using this product, please read the following information carefully. In the event of any doubt regarding the safety of the equipment when the module is used under a safety function, contact your local Mitsubishi representative.

The following are translated from the original Japanese version. For the Japanese version, please consult your local Mitsubishi representative.

1. Safety Programmable Controller Product List

2. Relevant Manuals

3. Safety Standards

4. Installation

5. Safety Function Models

6. Precautions

7. Safety Response Time

8. EU Declaration of Conformity

9. UK Declaration of Conformity